

they would be defeated with their own money. This is all my belief."

When the Governor was asked about reports concerning Democratic National finance of a year ago, he said:

"I came on board the Democratic ship July 7. I know nothing about what happened before that time. One thing I can tell you is that I found a deficit, but no money."

"Chairman Hays calls your attack an insult," the Governor was further informed.

"The matter of exposing such an infamous proceeding is a matter of expediency due to the public. The defense is up to Mr. Hays."

GREATLY PLEASED WITH THE EFFECT OF SPEECH.

Gov. Cox seemed greatly pleased that the exposition of the "plot to buy the Presidency" had so visibly stirred the public and had brought the Republican managers to a position of vigorous defense. He was accompanied to New Haven by Homer S. Cummings and Sheriff Thomas L. Reilly of New Haven, who heads the Reception Committee of the college town.

On the Governor's car when he arrived here were Edward H. Moore, Gov. Cox's pre-convention campaign manager; Charles E. Morris, the Governor's Secretary; Robert Scott, Mitchell Palmer's Secretary, and James W. Faulkner.

The nominee was closeted at first with the Democratic leaders and then went out on the platform to meet the newspaper men. Right away he was commended by the photographers, who ordered him around like a hired man. The Governor seemed to enjoy the performance, "Come on, boys, and help me out."

"Here!" he cried to a group of officers, firemen and yardmen who stopped in their work and were grinning at the performance, "Come on, boys, and help me out."

"GET THE MONEY," THE REFRAIN OF G. O. P.'S SLOGAN

Gov. Cox Gives List of Them as Published by Party Managers.

In his speech last night Gov. Cox read these slogans as sent out by the Republican Party's Assistant Treasurer to the "money diggers."

Harding and Coolidge have the confidence of the people; BUT, BOYS, GET THE MONEY!

The platform is sound enough to hold the weight of the Nation; BUT, BOYS, GET THE MONEY!

It takes time to organize, but we haven't any more time left. BUT, BOYS, GET THE MONEY!

Henry E. Owen, Director of the Central Division, sent to his assistants a telegram saying:

Every State director, every city director, let us like Kelly did. Get the right man to use the right people. Do it quickly and systematically.

SWEEPS UP $1,087 BURGLARS DROPPED

Stable Cleaner in Newark Finds Floor Littered With Bills and Coins.

John Zandee, a stableman at the National Biscuit Company, No. 175 Mount Pleasant Avenue, Newark, was cleaning out the stable when he discovered that the floor was littered with bills and silver coins. He found the money trail led out a side entrance toward the company office. Zandee went along, picking up the money as he went and when he reached the office door he saw it had been flung. He notified company officials when they arrived and was found the office safe had been broken.

The burglars had dropped cash and bills amounting to $1,087 in the yard and stables as they fled. The check-up showed they had gotten away with $1,460.40.

ACCUSED BY YOUNG GIRL.

One of 10 Assaults of Another Gets Ten Years.

Martin Looman, 40, who had an office at No. 140 West 24th Street and is alleged to have been secretary of the Mutual Welfare League of New York, was sentenced to ten years in the State Prison at Dannenberg for the assault on a young girl.

The case was brought to the attention of Judge McIntyre of Central Sessions in default of $5,000 bail. He was charged with an attack upon a fifteen-year-old Bronx girl who was charged with luring to his office by advertising for a stenographer. Looman pleaded not guilty. It was said that Looman had frequently had sexual intercourse with the girl.

Judge Nott of General Sessions today imposed the maximum sentence of ten years on James Garrity, of No. 50 West 55th Street, convicted of being one of sixteen men who attacked a seventeen-year-old girl on a barge moored off Pier 65, North River, on June 14.

Catch With Hypodermic Needle.

Haite Gompers, thirty-four, of No. 97 Reid Avenue, Brooklyn, was sentenced this morning in Special Sessions to an indeterminate term in the Reformatory for attempting to carry a hypodermic needle to Randall's Island, where he visited a friend, Louis Kruger. Warden Henry O. Schell found the needle on him when she boarded the Randall's Island boat at 26th Street and East River on Aug. 12.

School Investigators Organize.

Senator John B. Mullan of Rochester was made Chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee recently appointed to investigate the school system of the State.

PITTSBURGH GOES WILD OVER COX AND HIS CHARGE

Governor Makes a Hit With Great Audience in Republican Stronghold.

By David Lawrence
(Special Correspondent of The Evening World.)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 27 (Copyright, 1920).—Political meetings may come and go, but there have been few like that which Gov. Cox addressed here. Thousands of people listened eagerly to the charges made by the Democratic nominee of a huge fund "to purchase the Presidency" and literally went into a frenzy of enthusiasm as the Governor produced documents from Republican headquarters tending to show that at least $5,000,000 is being raised in fifty-one cities in twenty-seven States from communities totaling 25,000,000 population, and that efforts are being continued to raise funds in cities other than those mentioned in the $5,000,000 quota.

Sensation after sensation was produced by Gov. Cox and the crowd gave him a demonstration of approval that was more like the demonstrations Theodore Roosevelt used to get, more like the enthusiasm Hiram Johnson commanded, and more like the spirit of joy that one witnesses in an athletic contest as the bleachers rise to cheer a piece of good play. This is a Republican stronghold but it made no difference—the crowd just "raised the roof."

AMERICAN PEOPLE SAID TO LOVE A SCRAP.

There's no doubt about it—the American people love a contest. They like to hear candidates swear each other with hot shots and sarcastic thrusts. Gov. Cox got more real enthusiasm out of the crowd at Pittsburgh than Woodrow Wilson got here in all his speeches put together.

Perhaps it was the extraordinary character of the occasion. It had been well advertised in advance because of the Governor's announcement that he would present proofs of his sensational charges. The big auditorium was packed to the doors. A large overflow crowd was addressed out of doors.

The people appeared convinced that Gov. Cox had proved his case. One skeptic answered a rhetorical question by saying he didn't believe the Governor had named a single corporation or individual that had paid a cent, and Mr. Cox, who appears to enjoy heckling, said the Senatorial Investigating Committee dominated by Republicans had the power to call in Chairman Hays and Treasurer Upham and either disprove the charges or get the names of the persons who had contributed the quotas.

The Governor read his manuscript carefully and frequently glanced aloft, so that everybody could see them, printed copies of the Official Bulletin which was published privately and for confidential use by the Republican National Finance Organization.

Mr. Cox evoked much amusement as he read some of the slogans from the Official Bulletin and as he poked fun at Senator Harding for saying he didn't know of these things when the Bulletin contains a letter of endorsement from the Republican candidate himself.

HARDING QUOTED BY GOV. COX AS FUND ENDORSER

Candidate Writes G. O. P. Official Bulletin Expressing Gratitude for Fine Work.

SENATOR HARDING'S endorsement of the G. O. P. campaign fund, as quoted by Gov. Cox, is as follows:

"Allow me to express through the Official Bulletin of the Treasurer's office my gratitude for enthusiasm shown by all associated with your office in raising our National Campaign Fund for 1920."

"Through the fine work of your organization we are nearing that form of national patriotism which expresses itself in support from every county, every State. Therefore I want all members of your organization to feel that their efforts are essential to our success in planning for national enlightenment and are all deeply appreciated by me."

HARDING DEFENDS CUMMINS-ESCH BILL

Calls It Great Forward Step in Address to Railway Employees.

GALLON, O., Aug. 27.—Unqualified approval of the Cummins-Esch Railway Reorganization Act was voiced by Senator Harding today in a speech here to a group of railway employees.

Saying he was aware that some of the employees were dissatisfied with the measure, the Republican nominee proclaimed that in the near future the workers would realize that it was "the greatest forward step in all the history of railway legislation."

Senator Harding did not mention directly the anti-strike provision that was in the railway bill as it passed the Senate, but he asserted that he stood for a policy that would make "continuity of service a government guarantee."

and said he also wanted to see railwaymen given the best of treatment by the Government and by the American people.

AMERICAN DIVERS WIN IN OLYMPIAD

Take First Three Places in Springboard Finals—Fine Weather for Regatta.

ANTWERP, Aug. 27 (Associated Press).—American won the first three places in the springboard diving finals of the Olympic games today. L. E. Kuehn, Multnomah A. C., Portland, was first; C. Pinkston, Olympic Club, San Francisco, second, and L. U. Hiebach, New York A. C., third.

The opening races of the Olympic regatta were held here today under favorable conditions of sunshine and calm in the Brussels Maritime Canal here.

The grandstands at the finish were decorated with flags and crowded, while the banks at that point were lined with motor yachts and launches. Large crowds filled both banks of the canal along the entire 2,000-meter course.

"TOBY" LYONS DEAD.

Was Well Known Comedian and One Time Baseball Player.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Thomas A. Lyons, known as "Toby" Lyons, died here this morning. He played ball with the Syracuse, N. Y., club a generation ago, later was an umpire in the New England League and for college games at Harvard.

For twenty years he was a well-known comedian, taking the comedian's lead in "Laid of Solos," "Yankee Rags" and "Mills of the Gods," and then with the late Peter Dinkley in "The Press Agents." He was very popular in theatrical and baseball circles.

COX GIVES LIST OF 51 CITIES "ASSESSED" FOR $8,145,000 FOR G. O. P.'S CAMPAIGN FUND

Reads a Message to Party's Collectors Showing $700,000 of Chicago's Quota Has Already Been Collected.

IN his speech at Pittsburgh last night Gov. Cox supported his charge of a $15,000,000 G. O. P. campaign fund by producing a typewritten list giving the following list of cities, with the quotas assigned to them:

New York, $2,000,000; Chicago, $750,000; Philadelphia, $600,000; Detroit, $450,000; Pittsburgh, $400,000; Cleveland, $400,000; Boston, $300,000; Cincinnati, $250,000; St. Louis, $250,000; Buffalo, $250,000; San Francisco, $150,000; Los Angeles, $150,000; Indianapolis, $125,000; Toledo, $100,000; Columbus, $100,000; Minneapolis, $100,000; St. Paul, $100,000; Providence, $100,000; Newark, $100,000; Seattle, $100,000; Youngstown, $80,000; Akron, $80,000; Oakland, $75,000; Milwaukee, $75,000; Dayton, $60,000; Baltimore, $50,000; New Orleans, $50,000; Rochester, $50,000; Kansas City, $50,000; Denver, $50,000; New Haven, $50,000; Omaha, $50,000; Scranton, $50,000; Spokane, $50,000; Bridgeport, $50,000; Washington, $50,000; Louisville, $50,000; Des Moines, $50,000; Schenectady, $50,000; Portland, $50,000; Birmingham, $50,000; Syracuse, $50,000; Canton, O., $50,000; Worcester, Mass., $25,000; Lynn, Mass., $25,000; Albany, N. Y., $25,000; Atlanta, $25,000; Memphis, $25,000; Duluth, $25,000; Jersey City, $25,000; Lowell, Mass., $25,000.—Total, $8,145,000.

A message was read showing that $700,000 of the Chicago quota had already been raised. The quota of $8,145,000 for the territory covered, embracing only about a quarter of the population of the United States, worked out on a basis of 31 cents a person.

COX QUOTES G. O. P. RECORDS TO PROVE HIS CHARGES OF A $15,000,000 SLUSH FUND

Shows That Republican National Treasurer Admits $7,500,000 and Asserts That Figures Will Be Doubled.

IN his speech at Pittsburgh last night, Gov. James M. Cox, in backing up his charges that a fund of $15,000,000 was being raised to elect Senator Harding to the Presidency, started out with the assertion that he would prove his charges by official Republican documents. He said in part:

"I have charged that a campaign fund of not less than $15,000,000 would be used by the Republican leaders in furtherance of the campaign in behalf of the Senatorial oligarchy. Mr. Hays denies it. I shall depend wholly for the purpose of making proof conclusive upon official documents which came from Republican Headquarters."

"Mr. Hays said a week ago that the fund would be $3,000,000. In a statement in the morning newspapers from Fred W. Upham, National Treasurer of the Republican Committee, he admits that the total will be approximately $7,500,000. Mr. Upham doubles Mr. Hays's figures. From the evidence which we shall submit, I think you will agree that we are justified in multiplying Mr. Upham's figures by two."

Gov. Cox mentioned the Ways and Means Committee organized by the Republican National Committee in January. Business men, in most instances very wealthy men, were selected as local chairmen, he said, and that it was intended as the affair of "class," he showed by quoting from a letter written on Feb. 7, by Mr. John Kirby, Chairman of the Day, North Carolina, which read: "This is purely a business man's movement."

Continuing, the Governor said: "I present first a copy of the first edition of a paper which is entitled 'Official Bulletin, Treasurer's Office, Republican National Committee, Fred W. Upham, Treasurer, No. 355 Conway Building, Chicago, No. 19 West 44th Street, New York City,' and published July 17, 1920. The first line in its first issue says: 'This bulletin is official.' This was followed by another striking phrase, which ran as follows: 'Nobody is going to have anything to do with this bulletin who has not had actual experience in digging up money in the field.'"

"And then, going from general to concrete terms, we find this language: 'If you don't read it, you may not miss any delectable diction, but you may miss something that those in charge think is a part of your job to do.'"

The grandstands at the finish were decorated with flags and crowded, while the banks at that point were lined with motor yachts and launches. Large crowds filled both banks of the canal along the entire 2,000-meter course.

restrained profiteering at the gates of the farm—place bureau of Government on shoulders other than their own, and the Federal Reserve System an annex to big business. When the American people fully grasp the sinister menace hanging over them they will shun it as a plague.

"Truly the Senatorial oligarchy and their candidates are harking back to the days of Mark Hanna. The Wall Street Journal in giving a list of expenditures in the campaign since 1860 shows that in 1896 Mark Hanna spent $15,000,000. Nothing approaching it has been attempted until now. It was this foul thing which Theodore Roosevelt brought to an end when he reformed the Republican Party. When he was doing it Warren G. Harding branded him as an Aaron Burr."

Shrinkage in Alaska's Gold Yield.

DAWSON, Y. T., Aug. 27.—Gold yield of the placer camps in the Yukon Valley for 1920 is estimated at $1,432,000 by mining company officials here today. Camps in the interior of Alaska are expected to yield $2,985,000. There has been a considerable shrinkage in the output owing to a dry season and the decrease in the purchasing power of gold.

SEARLES WILL LEFT ROWLAND FORTUNE

Changed It When Reputed Best Liked Friend Died After Long Illness.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Facts concerning the death of Benjamin H. Rowland have reached here from Philadelphia. It was his death that was responsible for the eleventh hour change in the will of Edward Francis Searles, the multi-millionaire.

Rowland was said to be Searles's best liked friend. Searles met Rowland on a visit to a granddaughter of Searles's aunt. Rowland was a hat-maker, who developed tuberculosis and when he died after five years' illness, Mr. Searles is reported to have changed his will, the bulk of the estate up to that time having been in favor of the sick hatmaker.
